TUTORING IS EXPENSIVE

Sure, it's worth every penny you pay, but if you must stretch your pennies to pay for other things, private tutoring is often one of the first to be left out.

That's tragic, because quality personal tutoring pays big dividends over time. One-on-one expert mentoring is one of the strongest contributors to success in any field. Academic writing is no different.

So investing those pennies in a Wordsmith writing coach can make the difference between "barely squeaking through" and excelling, between "making do with what I know" and gaining transformative expertise in a skill that will serve you well all the rest of your life: writing.

What if there were a way to stretch those pennies by sharing that transformative coaching with your friends?

Now there is! Fill out this Writing Team card, recruit a friend (or two, or three!) and text a photo of your completed card to us at 323-694-3191. We will reply and schedule a weekly coaching session with you and your Team, at substantially reduced rates.

That's the kind of math everyone can embrace.
Even though we don't tutor math... only writing.

And critical thinking. Analysis and synthesis. Argumentation and rhetoric. Literature review, citation and reference format, APA, MLA and CMS styles, and more... everything, in fact, that goes into the process and product of academic writing.

Seriously, you know you can do better. So can your friends. You can all write better, right now, for less than ever before. Call or text us to get started!
